REPORT

OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON STATUS OF THE DEGREE OF GRAND CROSS OF CONSTANTINE.

To the Grand Imperial Council:

Your committee, to which was referred the resolutions presented by the Committee on Foreign Relations, looking toward a surrender of our independence and sovereign powers to the organization, now styling itself the Supreme Grand Chapter of Knights of the Grand Cross of Constantine, and which was instructed to render a statement of the status and inherent rights of the several organizations referred to in said resolutions, respectfully reports:

That it has duly and carefully considered the subject referred to it, in the light of all the information it has been able to obtain. This latter includes the printed matter issued by the Grand Imperial Council of England; the Grand Imperial Councils of Pennsylvania and Illinois; the Grand Imperial Council for the Western Jurisdiction, U. S. A.; the Sovereign Grand Council, U. S. A., and the Supreme Grand Chapters (there were two of them) of the Grand Cross of Constantine. Also, statements made to members of your committee by Ancient Knights Companions, concerning the introduction of the Orders into this country and the incidents attending their early exploitation. Also, communications to the Masonic Press by Knights Companions of recognized learning and authority. Also, official inquiries pursued by the Acting Grand Sovereign, the results of which your committee has been permitted to avail itself of.

From all of the foregoing your committee has collected the following facts:

I.

That in the month of May, 1865, at the City of London, England, an organization was effected known as the "Grand Imperial Council of England," which body was then and there declared to be "the supreme governing body" of what the general statutes call "The Ancient Chivalric Order of Constantine," and which, in its manifestoes and other published documents is styled "The Imperial, Ecclesiastical, and Military Order of Knights of the Red Cross of Rome and Constantine."

That said organization purported to be, and, in fact, was, a revival, by Knights Companions theretofore duly invested, of an ancient chivalric order,
